

SonicWALL GMS Standard Edition

SonicWALL Global Management System

SonicWALL Global Management System Standard Edition Features and Benefits

- Comprehensive Security Management.
- Managed VPN Services.
- Cost Effective.
- Streamlined License Management.
- Multi-Tier Policy Hierarchy Architecture.

SonicWALL GMS allows the administrator to easily create security policies for the SonicWALL Internet security appliances and enforce them at the global, group, or unit level.

- Distributed Security Management.
- Customizable Viewing.
- Database and Business Systems Integration.
- Integrated ViewPoint Reporting.

SonicWALL GMS records all security policy updates and other changes along with the identity of the individuals making the changes.

SonicWALL GMS

Home Office
 ¥ Content Filter
 ¥ Firewall Security

Law Firm
 ¥ Network Anti-Virus
 ¥ Firewall Security

Corporate Headquarters
 ¥ VPN
 ¥ Firewall Security
 ¥ Network Anti-Virus

Factory
 ¥ Firewall Security

SonicWALL GMS allows administrators to generate a wide range of informative and historical reports to provide insight into usage trends and security of the managed SonicWALL Internet security appliances.

Mobile User

SonicWALL Global Management System provides a comprehensive security management solution for distributed enterprises and service providers.

Branch Office
 Mobile User

Minimum Deployment Requirements for SonicWALL GMS Standard Edition

Windows NT 4.0 (SP 4 or higher) or Windows 2000
 512 MB RAM, 85MB disk space, 750MHz processor

Solaris 8
 512 MB RAM, 115 MB disk space

Database
 Oracle 8i and Microsoft SQL Server 2000, 2 GB disk space

Part Numbers
 Contact your SonicWALL sales representative.

Java Database Connectivity (JDBC) driver
 Type 3 or 4, JDBC 2.0 compliant (available on the CD)

SonicWALL Internet security appliances under management
 Minimum firmware version 6.1.2.0 required.

SGMS Gateway
 Minimum firmware version 6.1.2.0 required and SonicWALL VPN-based Internet security